In retrospect I was very dramatic, the majority of the building is nice, my sickness and the choice of spot for my rest lead to a misjudgement of it. that said is said by the assertion that their plants look dead and many of their lower walls could use more colour/art. (and that there's so much cement but I know that's the style).

Reasons:

- Sun + moon

both are reasons we have life:

↳ sun gives energy (entropy if earth has only its own energy.)

↳ moon protects (standing watch through the season) from extra terrestrial objects.

↳ sun also acts as a halo on the tiger (reversal of reversal).
not all we see is all that happens on the tiger reversal of reversal.

garlic/gre reversal

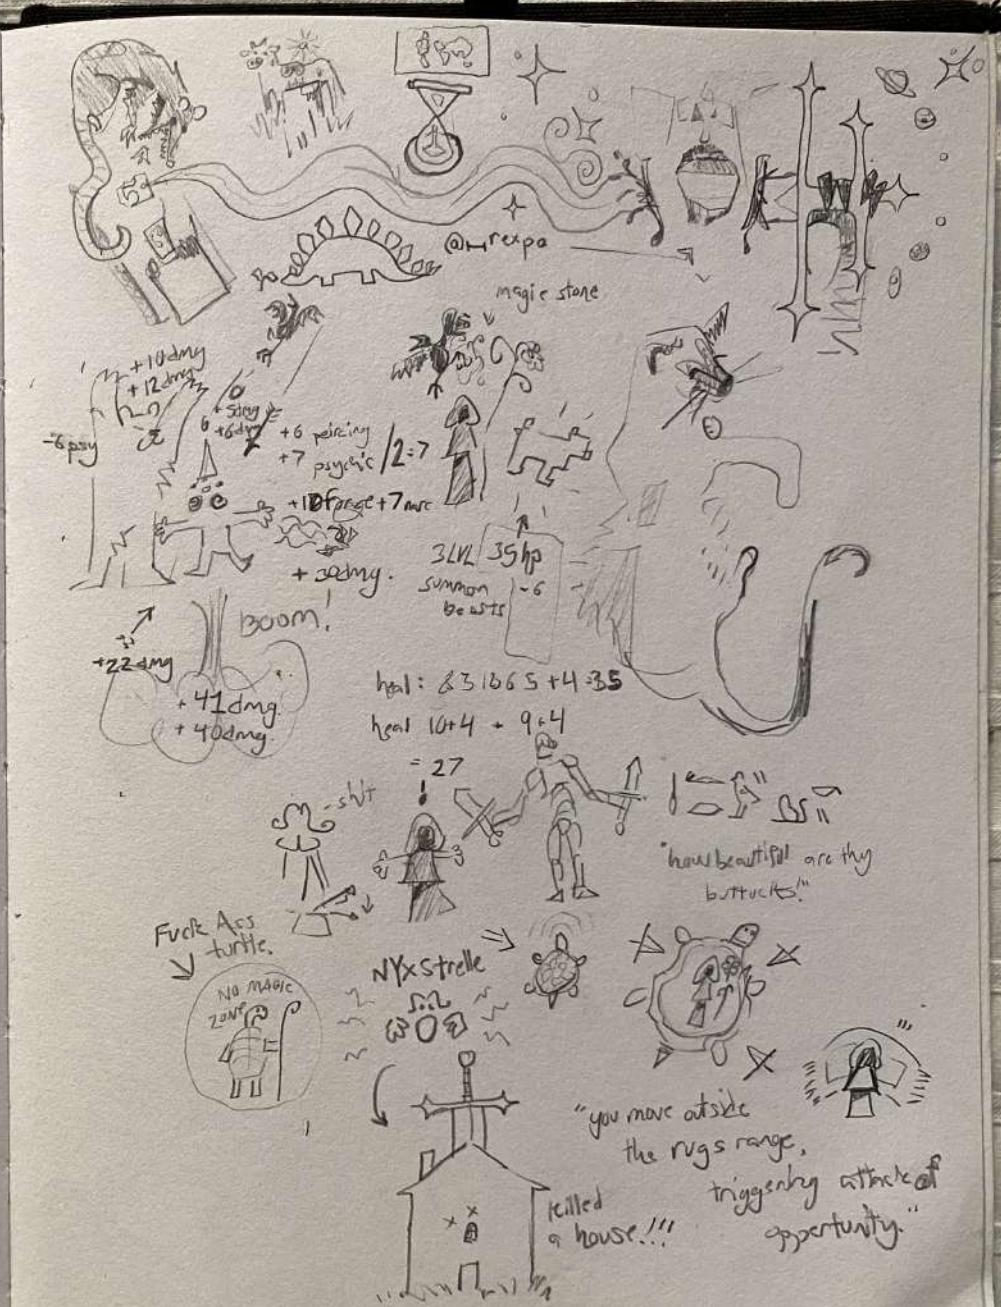

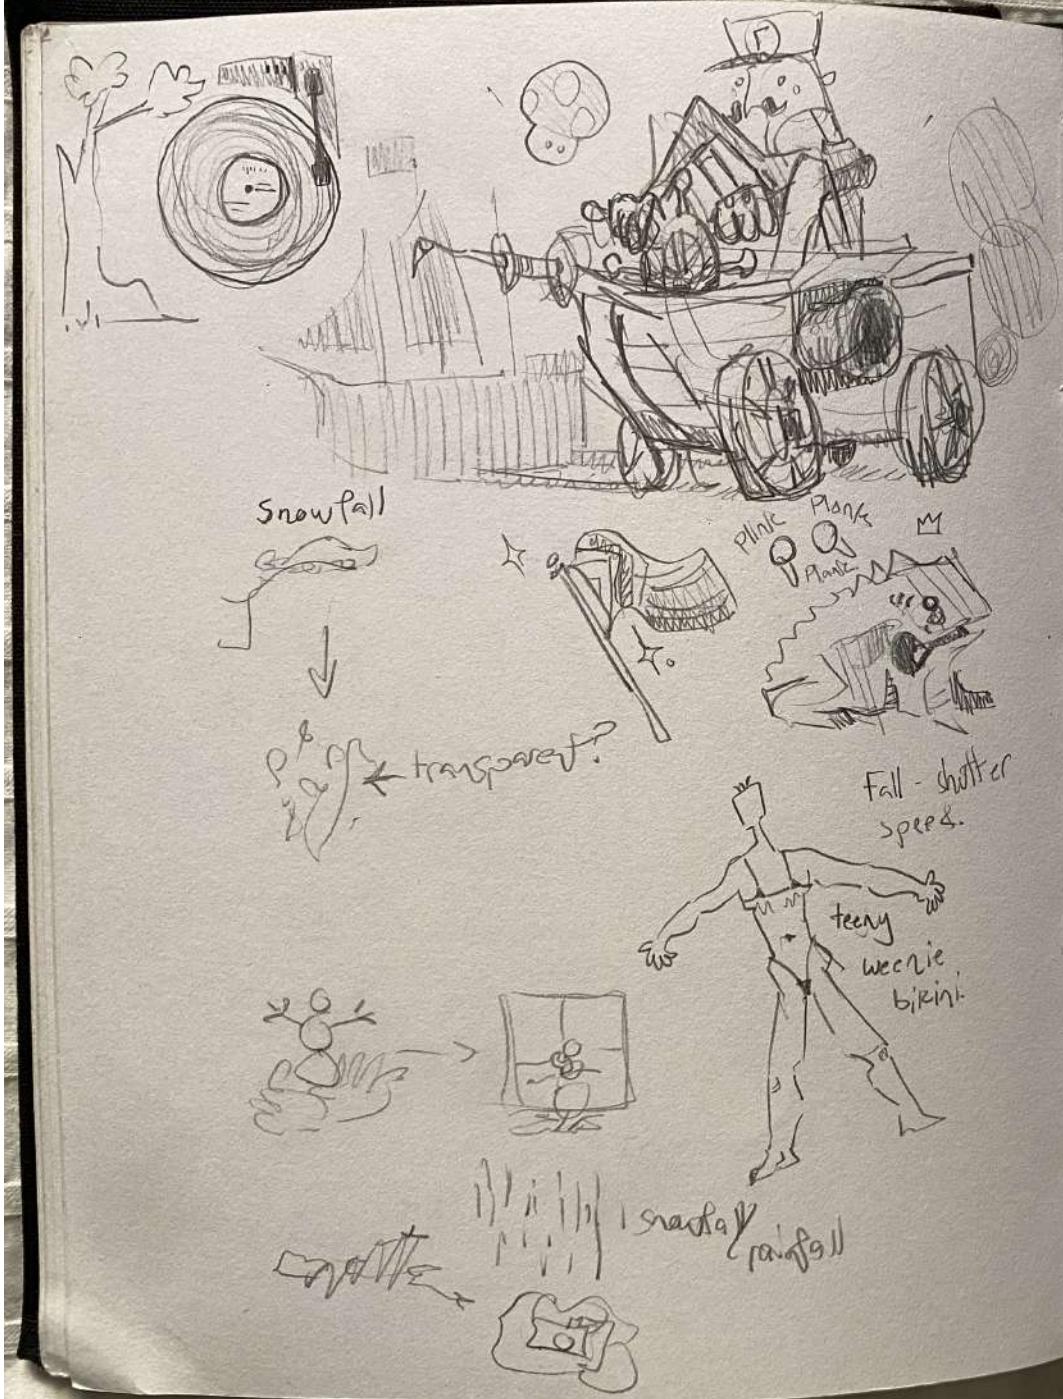

(strawberry + story + sweetness in face of certain death).

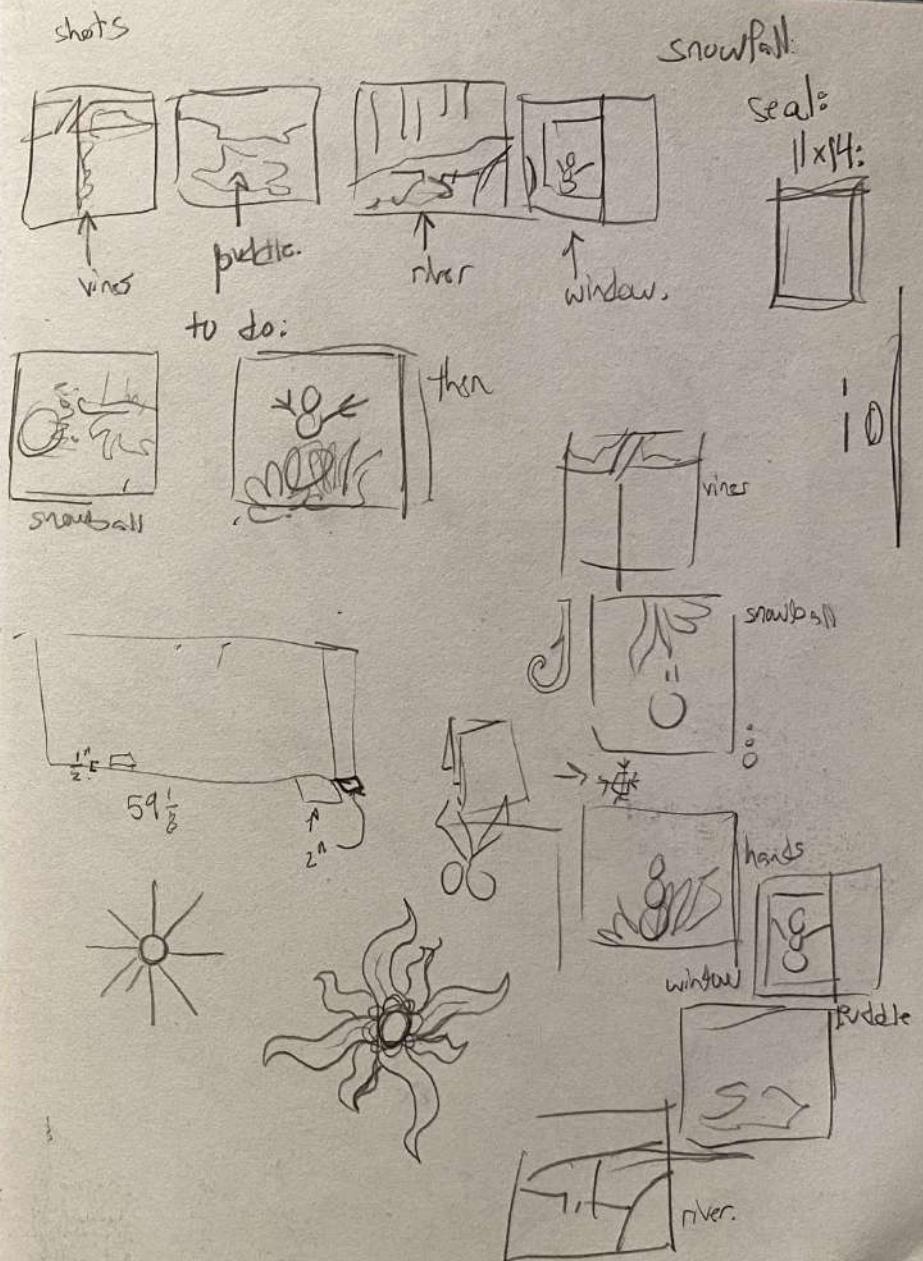

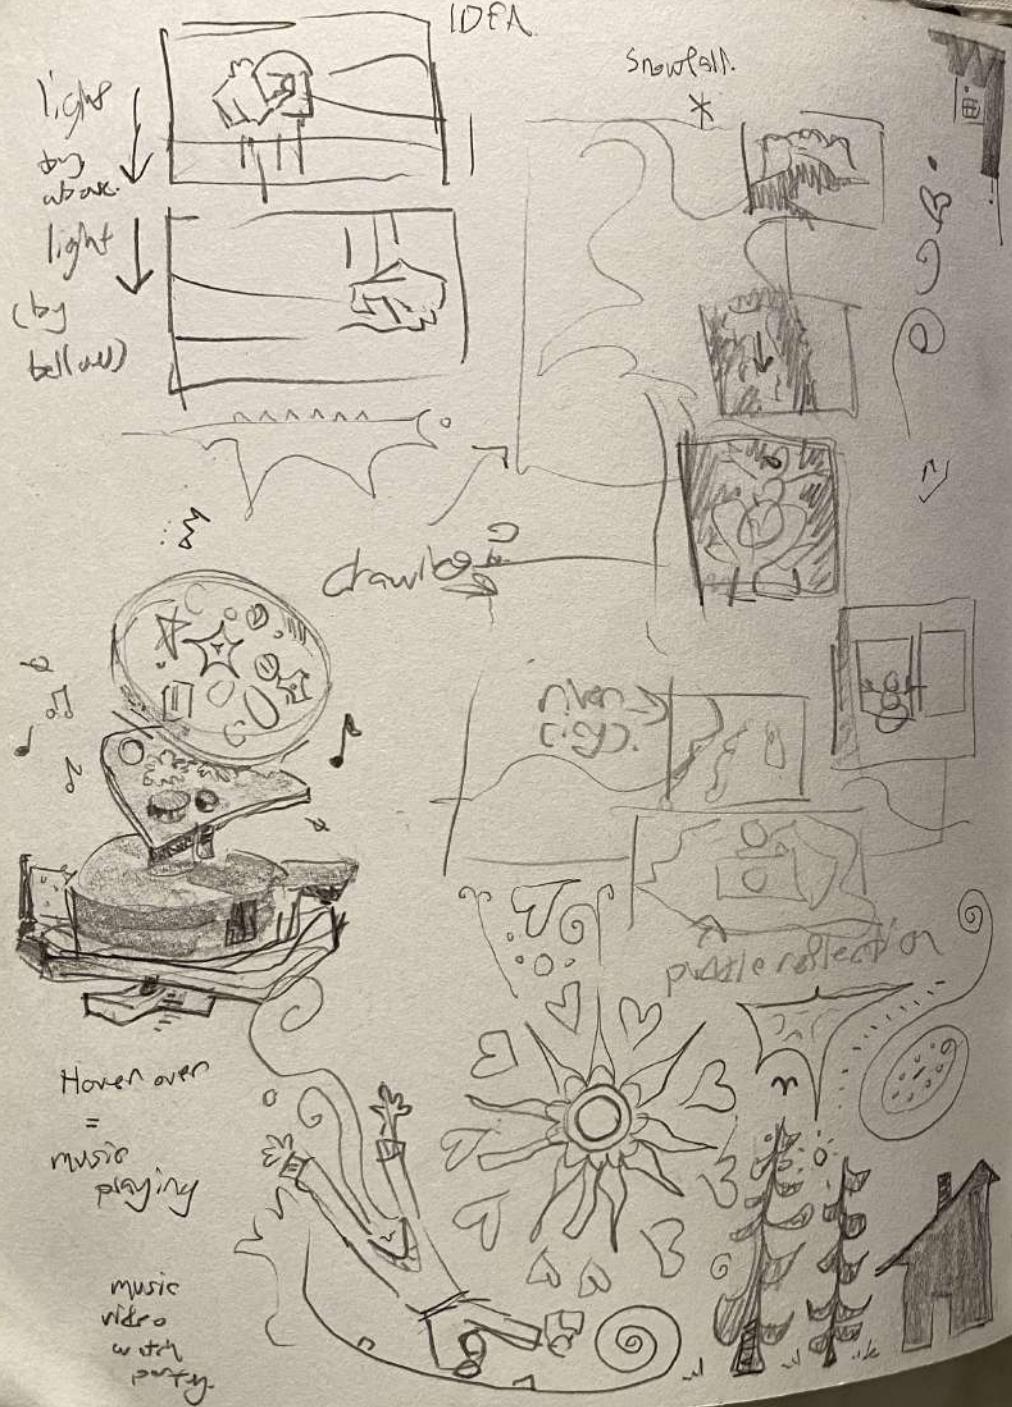

- tigers appear in MANY mythologies because of their powerful beauty → they are danger, yet foundation of many stories and ecosystems as hunters (preventing overgrowth).
- deer likewise are prey for ↑ and when overgrown, damage ecosystems

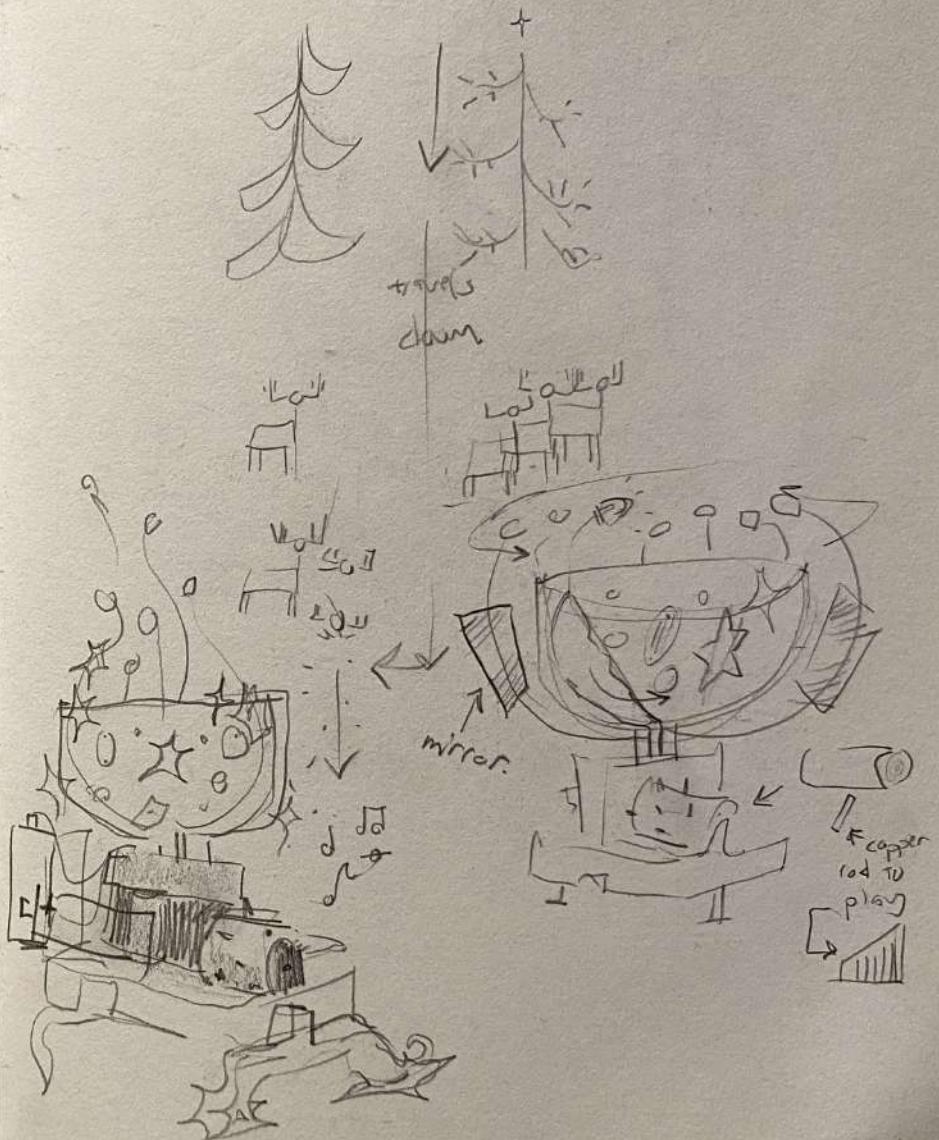

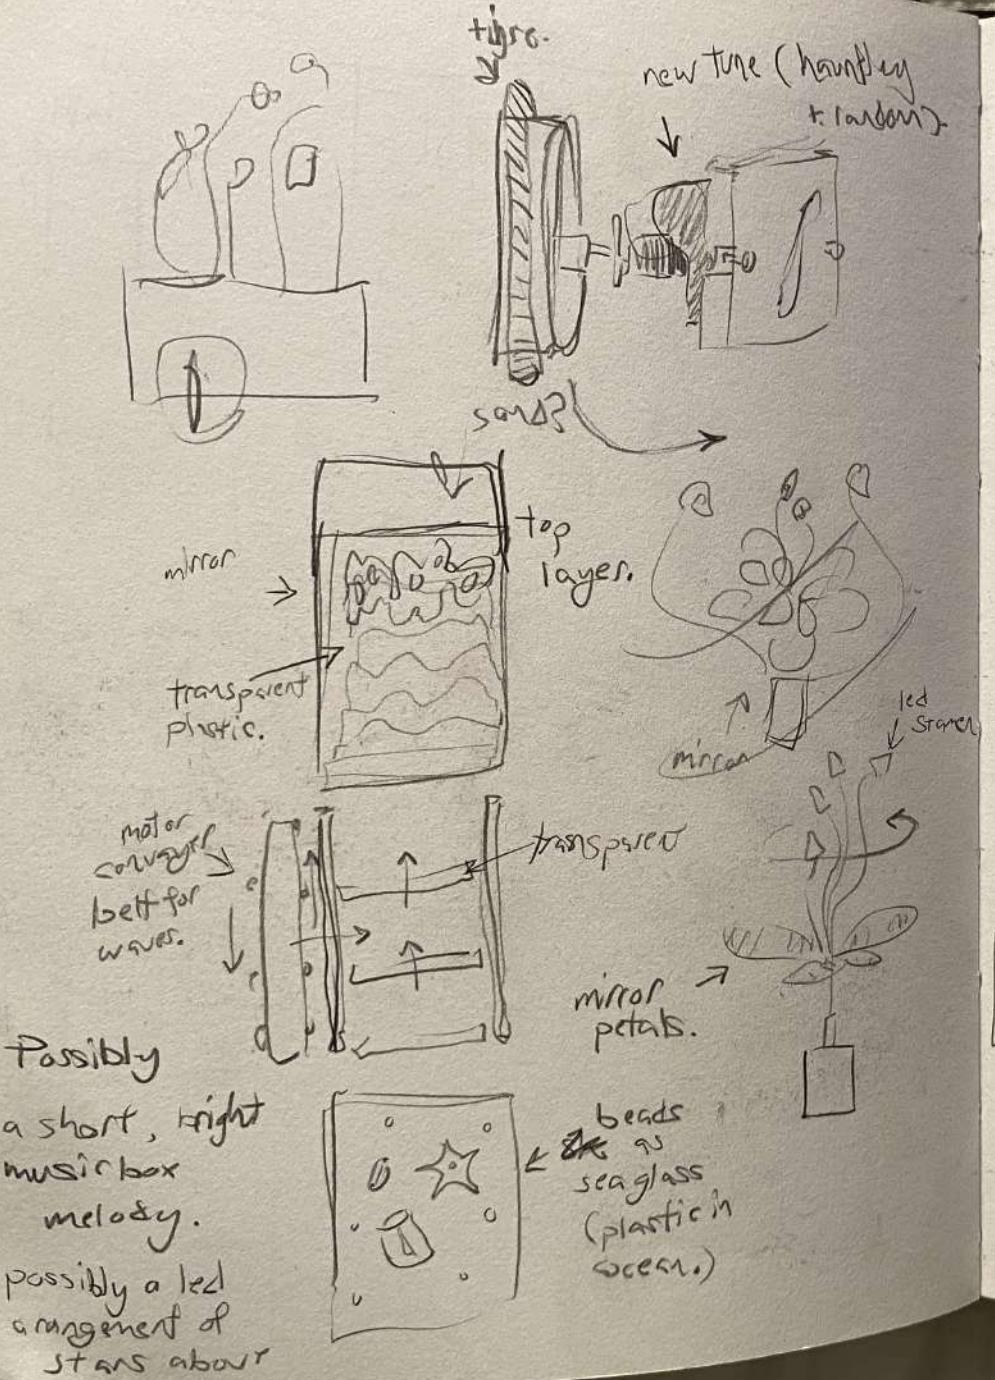

- the squirrel car + dancing woman/cat are expressions of joy and nothing seemingly harmless (not). but unaware of delicacy.
